Newport, R.I.. The addressee's critique, in the Liberator, of the writer's poem was very agreeable to her. Particularly the writer approved some remarks about Dr. Channing. While the writer, being orthodox, should not like to hear his religious views praised, she emphatically does not like to hear him praised so much by Abolitionists because she is an Abolitionist in a sense, which he is not. Comments on the errors of the church in seeking favor. Believes that a Christian Abolitionist cannot have "true church fellowship with a proslavery church." The writer sets forth her belief, and explains her aversion to controversy because of extreme sensibility.

To "Lilian Whiting?"

"N.p." Discusses Dr. E. E. Hale's book on James Russell Lowell and finds in it much evidence of spiritualism. Says that President Quincy of Harvard believed that he was directed by a "Daimon" in all the important decisions of his life, and that James Russell Lowell spoke of a gift of second sight. A.L.S. 4pp. 5 x 8 in.

A typed note says that the first page and a half were "taken off as personal and irrelevant."

«Boston» The writer answers the addressee's letter to the Boston Daily Advertiser. Favors simplicity and avoidance of over-indulgence. Holds that excessive imports are caused by an over-supply of paper money. Hollis, Thomas, 1720-1774; benefactor.

To Mr. Lockyer Davis, bookseller, Holborn, London.

[Urles Farm in Corscombe, Dorsetshire, England.] Mr. Hollis will not be in London all summer. Informs him that the plate of Locke and the copy of the last edition on Government are locked in his cabinet and cannot be procured. The errata are very important as one of them conveys a different idea from that of John Locke's. Regrets that he cannot better serve his friend. A.L. 1p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

To Colonel Lebbeus Loomis, New York.

[Elizabethtown, New Jersey.] Received his letter and the enclosure from Samuel Richards. States that the memorial which was brought before the nineteenth Congress was not fully decided upon. His own feelings regarding a new move for a memorial have been expressed in his circular letter. Approves the meeting of delegates from the various states and hopes that the delegates in New York will convene without delay. Reminds him that Mr. Webster in Congress must have a correct list of the survivors in each state and asks him to forward such a list before the sessions commence. A.L.S. 2p. 9 3/4 x 8 in.
